

RENTAL OF REAL PROPERTY/PROPERTY MANAGERS

WHO NEEDS A LICENSE?

- Any property owner who rents or leases out real property, including, residential and commercial buildings or land
- A property management company located in the Tacoma
- A property management company located outside Tacoma and physically coming into the City or contracts or hires someone to maintain properties, collect rent, or provide other services for tenants or property owners

LICENSE FEE EXEMPTIONS

There are some exemptions outlined in local, state and federal laws, that prohibit a city from assessing a license fee. Exemptions related to rental business activity are properties owned by:

- An "Authority" as defined in RCW 35.82.210
- An entity in which the City is prohibited from taxing under the Washington State Constitution or the Constitution of the United States or any other exemption outlined in a local, state, or federal regulation

Rental property owners exempt from a license fee are still required to register their rental properties with the City.
